

Executive Registry
2-8719

6 May 1952

Professor Robert M. MacIver
President of the Union for the Protection of the Human Person
100 West 30th Street
New York, New York

Dear Professor MacIver:

General Smith has asked me to acknowledge the article by Mr. Boris L. Dvinov which you so thoughtfully sent to him last month.

We are happy to have the material contained in it and have put it into our library.

Sincerely yours,

Assistant to the Director

ST

REL: jr

Distribution:

) Reading file
3 - DCI ) Official file
          ) Personal file

Article to library

UNION FOR THE PROTECTION OF THE HUMAN PERSON

by international social and economic co-operation, inc.

UNION POUR LA DEFENSE
DE LA PERSONNE HUMAINE

par la collaboration internationale
sociale et économique

100 West 80th Street, New York City
Telephone: ENdicott 2-5695

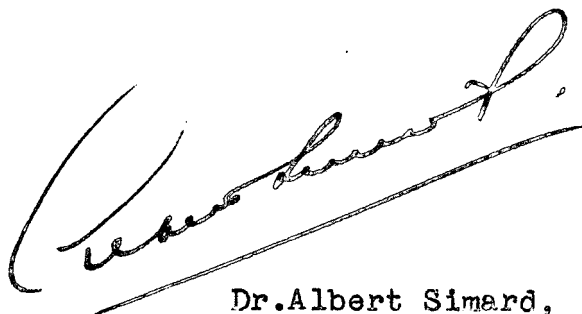

NEW YORK, N. Y., April 17, 1952

General Walter Bedell Smith
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C.

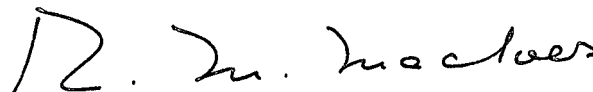

Dear General Bedell Smith,

The Union for the Protection of the Human Person and the American Committee for Free Russia have the honor of transmitting herewith an important article by Mr. Boris L. Dvinov, to which they respectfully draw your attention.

Very truly yours,

Dr. Albert Simard,
Chairman, Board of Directors.

Prof. Robert M. MacIver,
President of the Union.

Boris Gourevitch,
Vice-President of the Union.

Enclosures.